

Revision of Conversion Arrangement for ISO/IEC 27001:2022

As per the revision of conversion requirements by International Accreditation Forum (IAF) and China National Accreditation Service for Conformity Assessment (CNAS), please be informed that all recertification audits after 30 April 2024 shall be conducted according to ISO/IEC 27001:2022.

If your organisation is currently certified to ISO/IEC 27001:2013 and will have recertification audit after 30 April 2024, please note that it is mandatory to convert the certification standard to ISO/IEC 27001:2022 and the audit shall include at least additional 0.5 mandays to confirm transition of the certified organisation.

If your organisation wants to have a separate conversion audit, please contact our Customer Service for arrangement; or our Customer Service will confirm the conversion arrangement with you when the annual surveillance audit or recertification audit is scheduled. If the conversion is carried out in conjunction with a recertification audit, there shall be additionally a minimum of 0.5 mandays; and if the conversion is carried out in conjunction with an annual surveillance audit, there shall be additionally a minimum of 1 manday. We will endeavor to assist you to ensure a smooth transition to meet the requirements of the new standard.

The conversion period remains unchanged and lasts for 3 years from the publication of ISO/IEC 27001:2022. ISO/IEC 27001:2013 certification shall be converted to ISO/IEC 27001:2022 before 31 October 2025 and all ISO/IEC 27001:2013 certifications shall be withdrawn at the end of the conversion period.
